

William A. Woolf
President, CEO & Founder USSFA

Colonel William A. “Bill” Woolf, USAF (Ret.), is a distinguished retired U.S. Air Force officer with over 24 years of service, renowned for his leadership in space and nuclear operations.

Military Career and Expertise

Col. Woolf’s career encompassed pivotal roles in space operations, nuclear command and control, and technical program management. He held key positions in operations, staff leadership, and technical program management, with extensive experience in advanced space programs and Joint All-Domain Command and Control (JADC2). A graduate of the United States Air Force Weapons School, he is recognized for his expertise in space and multi-domain operations.